

Divorce & Separation Support Group

Next group begins September, 2015

Important Elements of the Support Group:

- Meets once a week
- Weekday evening
- Free childcare provided
- In Chapel Hill, NC
- Experienced facilitators
- $40 fee/8-week session
- Pre-group individual meeting required to join the group

This 8 week group is open to women who have experienced or are contemplating separation and/or divorce. The group will address common issues that women face during this process such as grief, loss, anger, self-esteem, legal and financial concerns, parenting/co-parenting issues, and managing change. The focus of the group will be to provide support, encouragement, and information in a safe, nurturing, and confidential environment. A pre-group interview is required to determine if the group is a good fit at the present time. There is a $40 fee associated with this group, but can be waived as needed. Child care is offered upon request.
